"If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from his love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose."

- Philippians 2:1-2 (New International Version)

I love this time of year! Even though the days are still a bit too short and the coming of Lent means that I will be fasting, this is the season that I feel most connected to God and God's work in the world. It's an amazing time when we daily seek to repent of our ways and walk a bit closer to the path that God has called us to through the example of Jesus Christ. It's something that I wouldn't miss for the world. For I believe the high holy days of the Christian year begin with Ash Wednesday and end on Easter Sunday. This is what being a Christian is all about, because Lent is about seeking God.

For those of you wondering how I could get so "pumped up" over Lent, let me give you a bit of background: Lent is a forty-day period, excluding Sundays, during which we Christians prepare ourselves spiritually for the commemoration of Christ's suffering, death and resurrection. Beginning in the second century, Christians would undergo a brief period of fasting and prayer in preparation for Good Friday and Easter. By the fourth century the period had been extended to forty days to coincide with the forty days that Jesus fasted and prayed in the wilderness at the beginning of his ministry (which also coincided with the forty days Moses and Elijah fasted in the Old Testament). The season was originally called "the forty days" but later came to be called Lent - from the Old English, lengten, a reference to the lengthening of the days that happens in the springtime. Lent was also the season when Christian converts made their final preparation for receiving their baptism and first communion at the Easter vigil. It was a time of repentance for those who had abandoned the faith during the persecutions. Lent calls us to more intense and intentional spiritual growth during which we remember the message, the life, the suffering and death of Christ.

I hope that you will share my joy and enthusiasm about developing a relationship with our living Lord, Jesus Christ, and so I'm inviting you to do three things this Lent: (1) Be in worship every weekend, (2) Read your Bible daily - I'll be handing out a Lenten reading guide during worship starting on Ash Wednesday, and (3) Fast something as an expression of your faith and identification with Jesus' suffering. I will usually fast from food for one day a week, and also try to give up one of my "comfort foods" like chocolate or soda. Through these spiritual disciplines we, in a small way, share in the journey of Christ from the Hosannas of Palm Sunday, up the Via De la Rosa to Golgotha, onto the Cross, and finally arriving at the empty tomb. Join me in forty days of getting closer to Jesus and closer to God.

May this Lenten season renew your desire and passion for God,

Pastor Tom

ZINGO

TAPES

Unsung Hero Award

The Zingo receipt rebate program has been in effect for many years and, as you probably know, contributes hundreds of dollars to our General Fund each year. But...do you know who the "unsung hero" is behind the process to gather the receipts received from our congregational members and friends? LILLIAN SIMMONS! Lillian tirelessly gathers and sorts the thousands of receipts received each year, staples them in groups of ten for easy counting, and then passes them on to the counters. Thanks, Mrs. Simmons, for all you do to make this program such a great success!

Here are the topics for March:

Pre-Kindergarten/K - This month we will be learning from parables and events of Jesus' life taken from the books of Mark and Luke. We will start off by studying the good Samaritan and move into the stories of Jesus' healings.

Grades 1-3 - We will glimpse Jesus' precious last days on earth. We will follow him as he spends time with friends and teaches them the most important lessons: pointing people to God; making our worship genuine; showing God's love; understanding our feelings; and showing the truth about God. We will use bible readings from the gospels of John, Matthew and Mark. We also will utilize role-play, flannel board, and class discussions. There also will be a new song for us to learn! Blessings from Ms. Marlene Grades 4 - 6 - focusing on Colossians 1:18 and Relationships: Why Can't I Sleep in instead of going to church? Why do I have to go? Encountering God in Community; Why is Church so long? Reasons for the Components of Church; Why are there so many different Churches? The Church Body; and What am I supposed to do at Church? The Purpose of Church. We'll also begin to look at faith questions and sin.

Grades 7 - 12 will focus on building character; overcoming obstacles; finding courage; and answered prayers.

A SPECIAL PRAYER

Below is a version of the Lord's prayer written by the following students in 4th through 6th grades:

MUSIC NOTES

Terri Weaver, Director

RPUMC is making the news in a two publications. One is The American Organist (TAO) January 2009 issues and one in the Arts and Worship magazine for Methodist churches.

The TAO magazine has a picture of the 100-pound vanilla and chocolate cake we shared in fellowship that was shaped like the organ console. It was created by Miki Chelton of Lucy Belle Cake Designs. The cake was used to celebrate Jay Cummings 80th birthday on October 19, 2009 and a successful concert for International Year of the Organ featuring Dr. Gordon Turk. This magazine is delivered to hundreds of organists throughout the United States in all 50 states.

The second magazine, is a Worship and Arts magazine for music, worship and arts staff members who plan worship services in the Methodist Church. (FUMMWA) The magazine features articles on how churches use : "The Arts" in their church and in services. RPUMC will be featured in an upcoming edition with pictures featuring Dr. Turk, Jay and the famous console cake.

FYI... Miki Chelton, the chef who created the cake, told me their church was celebrating an anniversary of her church where she made an exact replica of their organ console, too. However, it was a much smaller replica and not 100 pounds! Terri met Miki at a weeklong workshop for FUMMWA in Wilmington, DE in August 2008.

Additional Piano

A FREE piano was donated to RPUMC by The Mary Campbell Center located in Wilmington, DE. We are grateful to this facility for their generosity. This health facility has residents that are disabled. The facility "Provides Home and Heart" to the disabled. If you have chance....visit their website:

www.marycampbellcenter.org. THANKS!

A special thanks to the BMG for delivering the new piano to the Extension of the church building.

Faithfully, Terri Weaver
