Lay Academies across the Peninsula-Delaware Conference Announce 2026-2027 Dates

August 4, 2026

United Methodists in the Peninsula-Delaware Conference are encouraged to save the dates for Lay Academy opportunities in the Lower Shore, Delaware District, and Upper Shore regions during the 2026-2027 program year.

Lay Academy, a ministry of The United Methodist Church, equips laity for leadership, discipleship, and service in the church and community. Through diverse courses, participants can deepen their understanding of Scripture, theology, Methodist history and doctrine, spiritual formation, leadership, and ministry skills. Classes are open to anyone seeking to grow in faith, serve others, and respond to God's call in meaningful ways.

Lay Academy offers a welcoming environment for learning, fellowship, and discipleship, whether participants seek personal spiritual growth, leadership development, or certification as lay servant, lay speaker, or lay minister. Courses are led by experienced clergy and laity who provide practical insights and guidance for ministry today.

The following Lay Academy sessions are scheduled for the 2026-2027 academic year. Each academy will announce additional details on courses, schedules, and registration as they become available.

Delaware District Lay Academy Dates for 2026-2027

The Delaware District Lay Academy will offer two educational and leadership development sessions for clergy and laity during the 2026-2027 program year. Courses are designed to help one in ministry and service, providing a welcoming environment for those seeking to strengthen their faith, leadership skills, and understanding of the church's mission. Sessions will be held in Smyrna and Dover.

Fall 2026 Session: October 9-10, 2026

Location: Asbury United Methodist Church, 20 W. Mount Vernon Street, Smyrna, DE

Spring 2027 Session: March 12-13, 2027

Location: Wyoming United Methodist Church, 216 Wyoming Mill Road, Dover, DE

Participants are encouraged to save these dates and watch for future announcements about course offerings, schedules, and registration. For additional information, please contact Larry Josefowski.
